THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

STROUDSBURG TOPICS.

Republican Convention Discussed.—Judge Craig After the Lynchers.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
STROUDSBURG, Pa., March 20.—The great Republican convention held on Saturday is still being discussed by the politicians. There is a prevailing good feeling, considering the fact the contest for delegate and county chairman was bitterly fought. The fight made by M.
W. Rhodes, the cigar manufacturer, was one to be proud of, although Jesse A. Graves walked away with the prize.
For county chairman Dr. Thomas C.
Walton won a fight which was not at all unexpected, for Dr. Walton was deserving of re-election, due to the fact that he has been constantly pounding at the Democracy of Monroe for a number of years.
His opponent, Major Kistler, who at the late election defeated James Edinger, a strong Democratic candidate was defeated, not on account of his unpopularity, for he is popular, but on account of the present county chairman's great pull with the mass of the party, and more especially the party workers.
It was the largest convention ever held here.

The Republicans of Monroe county were never more encouraged, and are hopeful of making still greater inroads in Monroe county Democracy.
Judge Craig's arrival here to hold a special term of court was yesterday regarded by the lynchers as meaning that possibly a more rigid investigation would be ordered by the court. The state authorities, it is understood, are determined that every effort shall be made to free the county from the disgrace the lynchers has put on it and they will do all in their power to assist the local authorities. Judge Craig, it is believed, will before the special term of court close, have something to say that will not be exactly pleasing to the sheriff and others. The judge, it is well remembered, a few weeks ago did not hesitate to tell the authorities what their duty was and it is not likely that he will let the opportunity pass by without showing his displeasure. However, it is not believed that no matter how rigid the investigation may be that a successful attempt will be made to fix the blame. No one, even those who regard the affair as disgraceful, wishes to see the lynchers brought to justice.

Miss Kaiser, daughter of Andrew Kaiser, will be married today to Dr.
Lovering. The affair will be quiet.
Only a few of the friends are invited.
Ice men have filled their ice houses and the harvest has been a great one.
George C. Hughes, editor of the Times, was in New York a day last week on business. The Times is becoming one of the liveliest weekly journals in Eastern Pennsylvania. Wide-awake journalism and Brother Hughes travel in the same company, and the people of Monroe county are to be congratulated on having the Times in their midst.
Mrs. Sarah Wilson has removed her store to Jacob Miller's, across the way.
The divorce suit between Edward Morgan, the well known East Stroudsburg merchant, and his wife is now on trial before Judge Craig.
Miss Allie Walton has accepted a position in the Times office as cashier and book keeper.
Bicyclers are now getting ready for their spring appearances. The most popular here are the Victor, Columbia, and the Cleveland. The Rambler also has a number of friends.

FATAL neglect is a little short of suicide.
The consequences of a neglected cold are too well known to need repeating. Dr.
Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures a cough fore May 1.

Street Commissioner Duffy has a force of men at work on the plank road in the vicinity of the Riverside store, repairing the highway where it has been almost impassable owing to the yielding condition of the soil. The make it almost as pliable, without giving it any of the solidity of India rubber. Mr. Duffy's men are raising the road by covering it with ashes from the Riverside works.

was a large attendance and much interest was shown in the proceedings.
It was decided to build a high tower at one end of the building now occupied by the company. The proposed structure will be forty-five feet high, and besides being useful will be very ornamental. Officers for the coming term were also nominated. These are:

To Perfect Health and Strength After Four Years Suffering.
"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass." Gentlemen:—I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the grandest discovery yet made, and it rubs even more than you claim for it. My wife has been sick for the past four years. For three years she was so bad that she was unable to do any of her household work. We had good physicians, but she did not recover her health. She was suffering from Bright's disease and Lameness in the Back.
Her tongue was covered with blisters; had no appetite, and was very weak and low with general debility. I insisted on her taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and she has been improving ever since. She has taken five bottles, and is so well
